JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

IN THE HIGH COURT OF MYSORE AT BANGALORE.

Notification No. R. Dis. 7 of 38-39, dated 12*th August* 1938.

Under the provisions of Part X of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1911, and with the previous sanction of the Government the High Court hereby makes the following amendments of Rules 3, 4, 7 and 14 of Order XXXII of the said Code :—

(a) Substitute the following for the existing Rule 3 :—

3. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this rule, any person who is of sound mind and has attained majority may act as next friend of a minor plaintiff.

or, if so appointed by the Court, be the guardian of a minor defendant for a suit provided that the interest of that person is not adverse to that of the minor and that he is not, in the case of a next friend, a defendant, or in the case of a guardian for the suit, a plaintiff.

(2) When a defendant is a minor, the Court on being satisfied of his minority, shall appoint a proper person to be his guardian for the suit.

(3) When a minor party has a guardian appointed or declared by competent authority, or, where there is no such guardian and the minor party has his father or other natural guardian according to his personal law, no person other than such guardian appointed or declared by competent authority, or father or other natural guardin as the case may be, shall act as next friend of the minor, if a plaintiff, or be appointed his guardian for a suit, if he is a defendant, unless the Court finds, for reasons which shall be recorded, that it is for the minor's welfare that some other person be permitted to act as his next friend or be appointed his guardian for the suit, as the case may be.

(4) An application for the appointment of a guardian of a minor defendant for a suit may be made by the plaintiff in the suit or by any person interested in the minor defendant.

(5) Every application made under sub-rule (4) shall be supported by an affidavit verifying the fact that the proposed guardian has not, or that none of the proposed guardians has, any interest in the matters in controversy in the suit adverse to that of the minor and that the proposed guardian or guardians are fit persons to be so appointed. The affidavit shall further state according to the circumstances of each case (a) the name and address of the natural guardian, if any, of the minor defendant according to his personal law or of his guardian, if any, appointed or declared by competent authority, or (b) if there is no such guardian, the name and address of the person in whose care the minor defendant is and the name and address of the person, if any, who is the de facto manager of the minor defendant's property, and (c) the names and addresses of persons, if any, suitable by reason of relationship, interest or otherwise to be appointed guardian of the minor defendant for the suit if the Court does not appoint any natural guardian or legally appointed or declared guardian or manager or person in whose care the minor defendant is as herein described.

(6) No application for the appointment of a guardian of a minor defendant for a suit shall be combined with an application for bringing on record a legal representative of a deceased plaintiff or defendant.

(7) No order shall be made on any application presented under sub-rule (4) above except after notice to the natural guardian, if any, of the minor defendant according to his personal law or to his legally appointed or declared guardian, if any, or, if there is no such guardian to the person in whose care the minor defendant is and to the de facto manager of his property, if any, and after hearing any objection urged by or on behalf of any such person or of any other person interested in the minor defendant, provided that the Court may, in any case, if it thinks fit, issue a notice to the minor also.

(8) No person shall, without his consent, be appointed guardian of a minor defendant for a suit. Whenever an application is made proposing the name of a person as guardian of a minor defendant for a suit, a notice in Form No. 11 set forth in Appendix H hereto shall be served on the proposed guardian; unless the applicant himself be the proposed guardian or the proposed guardian consents.

(9) If the Court finds no other person competent and willing to be appointed guardian of a minor defendant for a suit, the Court may appoint any of its officers or a pleader of the Court to be the guardian.

(10) When a guardian for the suit of a minor defendant is appointed and it is made to appear to the Court that the guardian is not in possession of any or sufficient funds for the conduct of the suit on behalf of the defendant and that the defendant will be prejudiced in his defence thereby, the Court may, from time to time, order the plaintiff to advance moneys to the guardian for purpose of his defence and all moneys so advanced shall form part of the costs of the plaintiff in the suit. The order shall direct that the guardian, as and when directed, shall file in Court an account of the moneys so received by him.

(b) Omit Rule 4.

(c) Add the following as sub-rule 1 A to Rule 7 (1).

When an application is made to the Court in any suit to which a minor is a party for leave to enter into an agreement or compromise or to withdraw the suit in pursuance of a compromise or to take any other action on behalf of the minor and the minor's next-friend or guardian is represented by a pleader, the pleader shall file in Court with the application certificate to the effect that the agreement or compromise or action proposed is in his opinion for the benefit of the minor. A decree or order for the compromise of a suit, to which a minor is a party, shall recite the sanction of the Court thereto and shall set out the terms of the compromise as in Form No. 24 in Appendix D to this schedule.

(d) Add the following as Rule 14 A :—

14 A. The appointment or discharge of next friend of a minor plaintiff or guardian of a minor defendant for a suit pending before the High Court shall be deemed to be a quasi-judicial act within the meaning of Section 128 (2) (i) and may be performed by the Registrar, provided that contested applications and applications presented out of time shall be posted before a Judge for disposal.
